

German Cities And Towns

Here in Germany, we have large cities like Berlin, Hamburg, Munich, and Cologne, as well as thousands of smaller towns and villages.

Click one of the links below. I sorted all German cities, towns and villages in alphabetical order...

German Cities in alphabetical order

A   B   C   D   E   F   G   H   I   J   K   L   M
N   O   P   Q   R   S   T   U   V   W   X   Y   Z

Unlike in many other countries, our villages are scattered throughout the country and Germans love to live in both large, vibrant cities as well as quiet, cozy small villages.

Germany has approximately 82 million inhabitants.

Would like to explore the history of Berlin with its still existent wall? Or what about the vibrant carnival in Cologne? That city has a city wall which you can still see nowadays!

Or what about The Green City Freiburg in the south, with lots of hills and mountains, the most sun hours of Germany, and very precious and friendly people?

Take advantage of the variation of our German cities and towns. Their historical buildings yet modern living is breath taking and unique!
