

Stuttgart -- Holy City Of Top Innovations

On hearing Stuttgart, it's normal for thoughts to turn to sleek, stylish cars that epitomize power and good looks. That would actually describe the capital of Baden-Württemberg itself — with its powerful automobile industry and architectural beauty.

Whether you love driving your car for the pleasure it affords, or to simply get from point A to point B, the Mercedes Benz World will hold you in thrall. Enter the world of an amazing automobile that is at the center of a million dreams. There's something about a Benz... well, you know what I mean. ;-)

From the field of modern technology, let me take you back to a time in history when castles and palaces were actually inhabited and not just toured by visitors.

— Top Areas Of Interest

- History
- Webcams

- Gunzenhausen
- Sigmaringen

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to actually live in one of these huge edifices? Take time to ponder this as you stroll under the elegant arcades of the Old Palace; as you contemplate the graceful painted ceiling of the Solitude Palace; and stand mesmerized by the magnificent facade of the New Palace.

Before you actually sit through an opera at the State Theater, you'll probably take some time to admire the structural beauty of the building which showcases all that wonderful art. The picture-perfect Johannes Church standing serenely amid the Fire Lake is an instance of Gothic grandeur that elevates the viewer's spirit even before having entered the hallowed interior.

Experience the fun a flea market at Karl's Square, or stroll by the majestic fountains and pillars of the Palace Square on a fine evening, absorbing the beauty and energy all around you.

There's definitely more to Stuttgart than amazing buildings and beautiful cars. If you're visiting in summer, be at the Palace Square for the awesome Summer Fest which is 100% fun! You will certainly be drawn by the cheerful racket of the Hamburg Fish Market in Karl's Square. Enjoy the seafood and the beer.

If in autumn, you're in time for the Stuttgart Beer Festival with a host of fun activities and great food. When you hit the top of that Ferris Wheel, yell out, "I'm King/Queen of the world."

Whether you are man, woman or buzzed up teen, feel the thrill in your heart long before your brain decides to let you know. :-)