

Showcase Your Biz -- Become a Partner of MyGermanCity.com

I started MyGermanCity.com in 2007 due to a huge demand for high quality information about Germany and its cities. Since then, with nearly ten thousand pages, it has become the most comprehensive English guide for the English speaking crowd interested in Germany.

Thousands of people visit MyGermanCity.com every day, almost one million every year — expats and students living in Germany... people living abroad interested in my home country... descendants whose genealogy ties back to a family member who came from this amazing country.

Do you have a business of which my visitors could benefit from? Great! Become a Partner of MyGermanCity.com and receive a dedicated page in return on which you can showcase your business and/or service(s) — including pictures and video. Your company's banner will be placed prominently on the MyGermanCity.com home page with a link your very own page — plus links on appropriate pages.

Prices are as follows:

550 € per year (excl. VAT)

Your banner on the MyGermanCity.com home page:

700 € per year (excl. VAT)

Your banner at the top of every page:

2000 € per year (excl. VAT)

For more details, contact me personally at admin@mygermancity.com.

Send me your desired headline, page text (up to 1000 words), images, video link, company contact, and company logo.

I and my audience look forward hearing from you and seeing your business becoming a MyGermanCity.com Sponsor!

My best,
Marcus
