

Breisgau-Hochschwarzwald District -- Camping, Hiking, Relaxing

The Breisgau-Hochschwarzwald District in the south of the state of Baden-Württemberg is where you'll find the best of the best of the Black Forest area \(a.k.a. Schwarzwald\). OK, some might argue with that, but at least that's based upon my own experience. ;-)

Where should I start... with the two incredible lakes, Titisee and Schluchsee, inviting to relax, walk, swim, and fish? Plus, the nearby incredibly cute town of Titisee-Neustadt. Or what about the countless small, curvy streets leading through the Black Forest, which are covered by snow in winter?

Ah, of course there are also some townships in this district, and they're all awesome. This is all there is to it. Awesome.

Of course, you'll find countless cuckoo clocks here since the Black Forest is the "Headquarter" of that item. :-)
