How To Link To MyGermanCity.com

There are many ways on how to spread the word about MyGermanCity.com. Let me list a few...

1. Use the "Email a Friend" link

At the bottom of every page (this one included) is a link that says "Email a Friend." Once you clicked on it, a smaller sized window will open up. On that page, fill in your friend's name and e-mail address and click on "Send."

Your relative, friend, colleague, whoever you chose to sent it to, will then receive an excerpt of the page where you clicked on the "Email a Friend" link in the first place, including a link to the page so s/he can "find" it and visit it as well.

2. Copy and paste the URL (i.e., Internet address) from the below text box to whichever place you prefer — e-mail, Twitter, Facebook, etc.

3. Copy the contents of the following text box and paste it into the source code of your Web site.

Germany

This will generate a hyperlink for the word Germany to MyGermanCity.com. If you'd like to hyperlink another word or description simply change the word Germany to the one(s) of your choice!

Of course, feel free to simply enter the word Germany into your Web site's editor and highlight it, click the hyperlink button in that editor, and then use the above URL (under Step 2) to be used as the targeted Web address.
