

Frankenthal -- Medieval Town With Art Work

The historic city of Frankenthal goes all the way to the 8th century when it was settled by people of extreme artistic capabilities.

Frankenthal gives you a comprehensive vacation experience that takes you along the famous Rhine Valley wine trail while stuffing your tour with enough exciting entertainment to last you for quite some time.

The medieval Town Hall is a wondrous piece of architecture that adds considerably to the beauty of the town center. The ruins of the Augustinian Seminary that dates back to the 12th century still retains enough dignity to captivate your interest as you gaze at them.

— Top Areas Of Interest

- History
- Webcams

- Gunzenhausen
- Sigmaringen

You can't but be impressed with the Wormser Tor (or City Gate) of Frankenthal. This sturdy piece of architecture welcomes you into the town area as it stands watch over the historic treasures within.

The old town area is the perfect place to simply stroll along and make your own discoveries. The old alley ways invite exploration and surprise you with pleasant twists and turns.

Frankenthal has various cultural offerings that will entice you to linger. Whether you take the porcelain route, the silk route, or the wine route, this town has plenty of scope to give you an unforgettable time.

The heady mix of medieval and modern lend this town a certain flexibility and space for you to chart your plans unhindered.