

Top Ten Frankfurt Attractions And Essential Experiences

— Top Areas Of Interest

- History
- Webcams

- Gunzenhausen
- Sigmaringen

Frankfurt is an exciting destination that offers its visitors a little bit of everything. The below top ten list of attractions in Frankfurt is Frankfurt in a nutshell.

1. Visiting the Frankfurt Cathedral

This beautiful building is a star of Frankfurt's attractions. The Frankfurt Cathedral, destroyed and rebuilt twice in its history, is a potent symbol of the German spirit.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Sights

2. Viewing the Mainhattan Skyline

As an international business center, Frankfurt boasts a skyline that is unmatched by any of its European counterparts. The Commerzbank Tower is Frankfurt's own Empire State Building, the tallest in the city.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Sights

3. Dancing at the Legendary Cocoon Club

Frankfurt was the birthplace of trance music and that history is apparent at this world-famous dance club. It features pod seating, honeycomb walls and a fine dining experience.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Nightlife

4. Attending a Frankfurt Trade Fair

A signature event on the Frankfurt calendar, the trade fairs are held throughout the year. The Book Fair and Auto Show are two main attractions that sometimes bring one million (or more) visitors to the city.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Events

5. Checking Out the Museumsufer

A must on the list of Frankfurt attractions, the Museumsufer is a concentration of about a dozen museums along the banks of the Main. From art to history, film to architecture, the museum buff will find plenty to love and learn. :-)

- Learn more about Frankfurt Museums

6. Exploring the Palm Garden

Frankfurt is an international city and this is apparent even in its nature parks! In the Palmengarten you will find tropical plant life and exotic flowers in this vast green complex.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Parks

7. Spending An Evening at the Opera

The New Opera House has been named Opera House of the Year by its patrons. A performance here may well feature a future star of the German opera scene.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Theaters

8. Munching on Frankfurt Sausages and Apfelwein

The traditional Frankfurt meal is, of course, the frankfurter washed down with some locally-brewed apfelwein. The sausages come in several different varieties but are usually served with that delicious yellow mustard.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Restaurants

9. Going Shopping on The Zeil

Germany's (and Europe's) pre-eminent shopping street is a stroll through the biggest designer shops in the world. There's even a viewing platform for those who prefer sightseeing from on high to high fashion.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Shopping

10. Running the Frankfurt Marathon

This family-friendly event is a day of fun and games. All races end with some delicious culinary treat, from pretzels to apfelwein.

- Learn more about Frankfurt Sports