The grand view of the castles are unmistakable. The castles of Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau are just as beautiful and audacious as the mountain peaks behind them.

The historical old town is situated on the Lech River. While strolling through the marketplace and taking in the culture and sights, you will see the High Palace appear as if out of nowhere. This late-Gothic castle is still in pristine condition and is open to visitors. Being one of the largest castles in Swabia, touring this palace is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Just below the castle is the baroque complex of the former St. Mang's Benedictine Monastery. With history dating as far back as the 8th century, the museum located within the complex is well worth the visit.

The town in general is like something you would find straight out of a story book. The older city below, surrounded by beauty and riches. If you have ever dreamed of being Cinderella or Prince Charming, the ambiance here is included.

After working up an appetite I recommend to choose a candlelight dinner, or a light meal from an open air cafe. Either one is just as fulfilling.

You will wish you could stay in this holiday forever. :-)
