Fishermen and aqua sport fans find a couple opportunities to let their passion flow in this district. Besides landscapes like around the Rhine River, you're going to find the Kraichgauer Hügelland, an area made up of hills, meadows, vineyards, castles, and cute little villages with half-timbered houses.

The Albgau is also inviting since it leads you as the "Nothern Gate" to the most stunning of all our German Regions, the Black Forest.

Some of the towns I recommend to get a first taste of this district, besides Karlsruhe itself, are Bruchsal, Bretten, Ettlingen, Kraichtal, and Weingarten. They have either magnificent historical buildings as well as opportunities for sports, but also yummy restaurants serving original food from this region (Baden), having their own unique taste. (One of the reasons to come back to the Karlsruhe district over and over again.)

By the way, in case you plan to come here with one of the discount airlines, the Karlsruhe/Baden-Baden Airport \(FKB\) is nearby (located in Rheinmünster in the Rastatt district).
