Movie Park Germany Highlights

The High Fall

Europe's only gyro-drop tower puts you in a free fall of up to 90 km/h (55 mph), plummeting from a height of 60 m (197 ft).

Crazy Action Stunt Show

Feel like you're in a Hollywood movie as you experience the explosions, close calls and daredevil tricks of this group of stuntmen.

Halloween Horror Fest

This October event is a must for lovers of Halloween. The park is transformed into a house of horrors as the streets are filled with creatures of the night, werewolves, vampires and zombies. Your spine will tingle as you brave the haunted nighttime attractions. For the smaller and more easily-scared, there's also some daylight activities like jack-o-lantern carving.

More Movie Park Germany Attractions

With six different themes, there's plenty of fun to experience. In Santa Monica, there are roller coasters, jet skis, ferris wheels and the Hollywood Film Museum. You'll feel like you're riding a wave as you spin like a top on the wild Crazy Surfer roller coaster. As you sit on the edge of a rotating disc, you'll travel up and down the coaster tracks.

Nickland features your favorite kids cartoons like Spongebob Squarepants, Dora the Explorer, Jimmy Neutron and the WonderPets in fun rides for the children. In the Streets of New York you'll find the NY Transformer, a dizzying ride that spins you through the air.

Experience American and German history in the Old West, which has the country's first wooden roller coaster. Shrek 4-D can be found in Hollywood while the characters of Ice Age await you in the Mystery River.

Restaurants

The usual theme park food of hamburgers and pizza can be found here, as well as German schnitzel. There's also plenty of sweet shops offering ice cream for a warm summer day.

The Music Club and Pizza & Pasta are the two main restaurants.
