How To Get To Tropical Islands

By Air

Both Berlin-Tegel Airport and Dresden Airport make reaching Tropical Islands easy and convenient. It is especially close to Berlin-Schönefeld Airport, just 35 km away.

By Car

Tropical Islands can be found just off of the Autobahn A13 (Berlin-Dresden). Get off at the Staakow exit and follow the signs. It's only 3 km (1.8 mi) away from the highway exit.

By Public Transport

There is a shuttle bus to the park from the railway station of Brand. These buses leave promptly after each train's arrival. From Berlin, trains run every hour and take just under an hour to arrive. Trains RE2 and RB14 are the best ways to reach Brand.

Prices

It goes without saying that theme park prices are ever-changing, right? Please find the most current ones at:

Tropical Islands Highlights

Rainforest

This enormous man-made rainforest (reputedly the world's largest indoor rainforest) covers an area of 30,000 cubic meters! With 50,000 trees and 500 types of plant, you may not realize you're not in the real thing.

Guided tours of this forest are available where you'll find out the answer to such perplexing questions like "why are bananas bent?" ;-)

Tropical Village

If traveling to Bali or Indonesia is just too far for you, then Tropical Village is the next best thing. With reproductions of Balinese and Thai architecture, pavilions and temples, this is the next best thing to a real holiday in the tropics.

Bali Lagoon

This beautiful lagoon and garden is the perfect way to relax. As the sounds of running and rushing water surround you, you can float in the canal or submerge in the whirlpool. The water is heated to at least 32° C (90° F).

For more excitement, try the water slide and waterfall adventure!

More Tropical Islands Attractions

For a great panorama of this unique ecosystem from 60 m (197 ft) in the air, take the Tropical Island balloon ride.

The Tropical Sea is an indoor beach where you never have to worry about the weather, and can swim or sunbathe. There's also miniature golf and a 25 meter-high (82 ft) water slide tower for those feeling more active. There's even a special place just for the children, the Tropino Club, with paddle boats and other kid-friendly fun.

Restaurants

There are many options for dining and drinking at the Tropical Islands. The Tropical Barbecue lets you sample some real tropical delicacies, while the Mondial serves food closer to home, like hamburgers and pasta. There's a tandoori cuisine on offer at the Sea Shell Beach Cafe.

The Palm Beach features an a la carte menu with such specialties as coconut curry soup, Caribbean lamb stew and couscous. Drinks and cocktails are also available at one of the many bars, the Kalmoa Lounge, Lagoon Bar and Moody Lounge.
