Marienwallfahrtskirche is the 15th century monastery and church which is still active today. Maintained and occupied by the Brüdern vom Gemeinsamen Leben, or Brothers of the Common Life, this ancient church is notable both for its extensive history and its ancient architecture.

Lying near a awe-inspiring protected area of Waghäusel, the scenery of the area is also noteworthy for its magnificence on a grand scale.

Situated near the church and village is Wagbachniederung, a protected natural area. Placed under protection in 1983, this wetland area has many ponds and is home to many bird species. Canadian geese, swans, grey herons, ducks, and tubring singers are just a few of the species which reside in this water-dominated region.

Other wild-eyed creatures roam the protected habitat area as well, including unken, which is a type of frog, and Ringelnatter, which is a snake species. Cycling tracks in the area provide physicality and gorgeous scenery for those who wish to explore Mother Nature's delights while in the region.

Other historic locations are littered all over Waghäusel. Such places include the Eremitage, the Day Laborer House in Kirrlach, and the Marienbrunnen, which is located in front of City Hall. Any of these locations provide insight into the history of the German people who make this their home.
